Daddy Daughter Dinner & Dance

South Jordan's annual Daddy Daughter Dance is coming 6-8 p.m. on February 6 and 7, 2009. This event has become so popular that we hold a dance on both Friday and Saturday. Dads, mark your calendars now so you can give your little girl a Valentine's Day to remember! We will provide a catered dinner, great music, corsage, craft activity, and photo for your sweetheart to remember her enchanted evening.

$50 off a Season Golf Pass

Purchase a 2009 Season Golf Pass before December 31, 2008, and receive $50 off. Punch cards and gift certificates are also available and make great stocking stuffers for the holiday. There is no reason to be trapped indoors this winter, the driving range is open all year with heated stalls.

'In Citizen's Garb: Southern Plains Native Americans 1889-1891'

The South Jordan Gale Center of History and Culture will be hosting its first traveling exhibit: 'In Citizen's Garb: Southern Plains Native Americans, 1889-1891.' This will be on display February 3 to March 10, 2009. The exhibit will feature

53 photographs taken by William J. Lenny and William L. Sawyers from 1889-1891, documenting details of the acculturation process undergone by the Plains Native Americans. This will be a great opportunity for adults and children to learn more about the Native American experience in America. The Gale Center is the only museum in Utah that will have this exhibit on display next year. Don't miss out on this tremendous and rare opportunity!

Mulligan's Golf & Games

Come try out the new "long grass" mats on our driving range. Our heated stalls will take off the chill so you can keep up your swing and enjoy being outdoors. You can also play miniature golf during the winter months, as long as there is no snow on the course.
